SHARES

- 6. The share capital of the Company is its issued share capital. The shares in the Company may be divided into several classes, and there may be attached to any of them respectively any preferential, deferred and/or other special rights, privileges, conditions and/or restrictions as to dividends, capital, voting and/or otherwise.
- 7.
  - 7.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act and this Constitution, the Directors may issue Shares to such persons and at such time, consideration and on such other terms and conditions, as the Directors may determine PROVIDED HOWEVER that no Shares shall be issued which shall have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Company without the prior approval of Members in general meeting. The exercise of the aforesaid rights shall be without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares.
  - 7.2 Subject to sub-Clause 7.3, the Directors shall not exercise any power

Class of shares

Authority of Directors to allot shares

- (a) allot shares in the Company;
- (b) grant rights to subscribe for shares in the Company;
- (c) convert any security into shares in the Company; or
- (d) allot shares under an agreement or option or offer, unless the prior approval of the Members by way of Ordinary Resolution has been obtained.

7.3 Subject further to Chapter 6 of the Listing Requirements, the requirement in sub-Clause 7.2 shall not apply to:

- (a) an allotment of shares, or grant of rights, pursuant to an offer made to Members in proportion to the Members' shareholdings;
- (b) an allotment of shares, or grant of rights, pursuant to a bonus issue of shares to the Members in proportion to the Members' shareholdings;
- (c) an allotment of shares to a promoter of the Company that the promoter has agreed to take; or
- (d) shares which are to be issued as consideration or part consideration for the acquisition of shares or assets by the Company and the Members have been notified of the intention to issue the shares at least 14 days before the date of issue of the shares.

7.3 For the purposes of sub-Clause 7.3(d), Members are deemed to have been notified of the Company's intention to issue shares if:

- (a) a copy of the statement explaining the purpose of the intended issue of shares has been sent to every Member at his last known address according to the Register of Members; and
- (b) the copy of the statement has been advertised in one widely circulated newspaper in Malaysia in the national language and one widely circulated newspaper in Malaysia in the English language.

8. 8.1 Notwithstanding Clause 7 above, except in the case of an issue of Securities on a pro rata basis to Members, or, pursuant to a back-to-back placement or a Dividend Reinvestment Scheme undertaken in compliance with the Listing Requirements, there shall be no issuance and allotment of Securities in the Company to a Director, major shareholder, chief executive or person connected with any Director, major shareholder or chief executive (hereinafter referred to as "the interested Director", "interested major shareholder", "interested chief executive" or "interested person connected with a Director, major shareholder or chief executive" respectively) unless Members in general meeting have approved the specific allotment to be made to any of the aforesaid persons.

Approval of general meeting required for specific allotment to Directors

8.2 In a meeting to obtain Members' approval in respect of the allotment referred to under Clause 8.1 above:

- (a) the interested Director, interested major shareholder, interested chief executive or interested person connected with a Director, major shareholder or chief executive; and
- (b) where the allotment is in favour of an interested person connected with a Director, major shareholder or chief executive, such Director, major shareholder or chief executive, must not vote on the resolution approving the said allotment. An interested Director, interested major shareholder or interested chief executive must ensure that persons connected with him abstain from voting on the resolution approving the said allotment.

8.3 The notice of the meeting referred to in Clause 8.1 shall state:

- (a) the number of Securities to be allotted;
- (b) the purpose of allotment;
- (c) the precise terms and conditions of the allotment;
- (d) the identity and relationship of the persons connected with the Director, major shareholder or chief executive, where applicable.

8.4 In this Clause, "major shareholder", "chief executive" and "person connected with any Director, major shareholder, chief executive" or "Dividend Reinvestment Scheme" shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the Listing Requirements.

9. 9.1 Subject to the Act and the Listing Requirements, without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any shares or class of shares already issued, any shares in the Company (whether forming part of the original capital or not) may be issued with or have attached thereto such preferred, deferred or other special rights, or such restrictions, whether in regard to distribution, return of capital, voting or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution determine. Issuance of shares
- 9.2 The holders of preference shares shall have the same rights as the holders of ordinary shares as regards receiving notices, reports and audited accounts and attending general meetings of the Company but shall only have the right to vote in each of the following circumstances:
- (a) when the distribution or part of the distribution on the share is in arrears for more than 6 months;

- (b) on a proposal to reduce the Company's share capital;
- (c) on a proposal for the disposal of the whole of the Company's property, business and undertaking;
- (d) on a proposal that affects rights attached to the share;
- (e) on a proposal to wind up the Company; and
- (f) during the winding-up of the Company.

9.3 Subject to the Act, any preference shares may be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable, to be redeemed.

10. The Company must ensure that all new issues of Securities for which listing is sought on the Stock Exchange are made by way of crediting the Securities Accounts of the allottees with such Securities save and except where it is specifically exempted from compliance with Section 38 of the Central Depositories Act, in which event it shall so similarly be exempted from compliance with this Clause. For this purpose, the Company must notify the Central Depository of the names of the allottees and all such particulars required by the Central Depository, to enable the Central Depository to make the appropriate entries in the Securities Accounts of such allottees. The Company shall, if required pursuant to the Listing Requirements, obtain an auditors' certificate that the issue of new Securities is in accordance with this Clause. Crediting of Securities Account
11. Subject to the Act, the Listing Requirements, the Central Depositories Act, the CD Rules and Clause 12, the Company shall issue and allot Securities and despatch notices of allotment to the allottees, and make an application for quotations of such Securities: Allotment and Despatch of Notices of Allotment
- (a) within 8 Market Days of the final applications date for a public issue; or
  - (b) within 8 Market Days of the final applications date for a rights issue; or
  - (c) within 8 Market Days after the receipt of a notice of the exercise of an option together with the requisite payment for the share issuance scheme; or
  - (d) within 8 Market Days after the date of receipt of a subscription form together with the requisite payment for conversion or exercise in respect of convertible Securities; or
  - (e) such other period as may be prescribed under the Listing Requirements or by the Stock Exchange from time to time.
12. The Company must not allot or issue Securities until after it has filed with the Stock Exchange an application for listing of such additional Securities and has been notified by the Stock Exchange that such new issue of Securities has been approved in principle for listing. Allotment or Issue of Securities
13. The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by the Act, provided that the rate or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the Act and the commission shall not exceed the rate of 10% of the price at which the shares in respect whereof are Power of paying commission issued or the amount or rate authorised by the Act, whichever is lesser. Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

14. Unless otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall not give whether directly or indirectly and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase or subscription made or to be made by any person of or for any shares in the Company or in the case where the company is a subsidiary, any shares in its holding company or in any way purchase, deal in or lend money on its own shares, but nothing in this Clause shall prohibit transactions mentioned in Section 127 of the Act or the purchase by the Company of its own shares pursuant to these Clauses. Restriction of Use of Company Funds
15. Subject to the restrictions and requirements in Section 130 of the Act being observed, where any shares are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a long period, the Company may pay interest on the amount of such share capital as is for the time being paid up and charge the interest or returns paid to share capital as part of the cost of construction or provision. Shares issued for the purposes of raising money for the construction of works, building or plant
16. Subject to the Central Depositories Act and the CD Rules, where 2 or more persons are registered as the holders of any Security, they shall be deemed to hold the same as joint holders with benefit or survivorship subject to the following provisions: Joint holders of Securities
- (a) the Company shall not be bound to register more than 3 persons as the holders of any Security except in the case of legal personal representatives of a deceased Member.
  - (b) the joint-holders of a Security shall be liable severally as well as jointly in respect of all calls and other payments which ought to be made in respect of such Security.
  - (c) on the death of any one of such joint-holders the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to such Security but the Directors may require such evidence of death as they may deem fit.
  - (d) any one of such joint-holders may give effectual receipts for any dividend and payment on account of dividend, bonus, return of capital and other money payable in respect of such Security.
- Only the person whose name stands first in the Register of Members as one of the joint holders of any Security shall be entitled to delivery of the certificate relating to such security where applicable, or to receive notices from the Company and any notice given to such person shall be deemed notice to all the joint holders.
17. No person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or required to recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any right whatsoever in respect of any share other than an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder, except as by this Constitution otherwise expressly provided or as by Act required or pursuant to any order of Court. Trusts not to be recognised

18. No person shall exercise any rights of a Member until his name shall have been entered in the Register of Members or his name appears in the Record of Depositors and he shall have paid all calls and other moneys for the time being due and payable on any share held by him whether alone or jointly with any other person provided that the Central Depository or its nominee company in whose name the Deposited Security is registered shall not be entitled to any such rights unless required by virtue of the Central Depositories Act or the CD Rules or the context of these Clauses. Rights of Members
19. If, by the condition of allotment of any share, the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable on fixed dates, every such amount shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being and from time to time shall be registered as the holder of the share whether in the Register of Members or the Record of Depositors, or his legal personal representatives. Payment of Allotment
20. 20.1 Subject to the provisions of the Central Depositories Act and the CD Rules, where by the exercise of reasonable diligence the Company is unable to discover the whereabouts of a Member for a period of not less than 10 years, the Company may cause an advertisement to be published in a newspaper circulating in the place shown in the Register of Members or the Record of Depositors as the address of the Member stating that the Company after expiration of 30 days from the date of the advertisement intends to transfer the shares to the Minister charged with responsibility for finance.
- 20.2 If after the expiration of 30 days from the date of the advertisement the whereabouts of the Member remains unknown, the Company may transfer the shares held by the Member to the Minister charged with responsibility for finance and for that purpose may execute for and on behalf of the Member a transfer of those shares to the Minister charged with responsibility for finance.
21. If required, the Company may issue jumbo certificates in respect of shares or Securities in favour of the Central Depository or its nominee as may be directed by the Securities Commission Malaysia or the Central Depository or as prescribed by the Central Depositories Act and the CD Rules. Jumbo certificates
- LIEN
22. Subject to the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the CD Rules, the Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) and the distributions, including dividends, from time to time declared on such shares. The Company's lien on shares and distributions, including dividends, shall be restricted to fully and/or partially unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid, and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay and has paid in respect of the shares of the Member or deceased Member. Lien on shares and distributions
23. Subject to the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the CD Rules, the Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of 14 days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable and giving notice of intention to sell in default, shall have been given to the holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy. Power to enforce lien by sale

24. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, any residue shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, subject to a similar lien for sums not presently payable which exists over the shares before the sale. Application of proceeds of sale
25. To give effect to any such sale, the Directors may authorise any person to transfer, subject to the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the CD Rules, the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and the Directors shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall the title of the purchaser to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale. Power to transfer shares
26. No Member shall be entitled to receive any distribution, including dividends, or exercise any privilege as a Member in respect of any shares upon which any calls for the time being due and payable shall be unpaid. Restricted rights for unpaid shares
27. Whenever any law for the time being of any country, state or place imposes or purports to impose any immediate or future or possible liability upon the Company to make any payment or empowers any government or taxing authority or government official to require the Company to make any payment in respect of any shares registered in the Register of Members and/or Record of Depositors as held either jointly or solely by any Member or in respect of any dividends, bonuses or other moneys due or payable or accruing due or which may become due or payable to such Member by the Company or in respect of any shares registered as aforesaid or for or on account or in respect of any Member and whether in consequence of:
- (a) the death of such Member;
  - (b) the non-payment of any income tax or other tax by such Member; or
  - (c) any other act or thing;
- the Company in every such case:
- (i) shall be fully indemnified by such Member or his executor or administrator from all liability;
  - (ii) shall have a lien upon all distributions, including dividends, bonuses and other moneys payable in respect of the shares registered in the Register of Members and/or Record of Depositors as held either jointly or solely by such Member for all moneys paid or payable by the Company in respect of the same shares or in respect of any dividend, bonus or other moneys as aforesaid thereon or for or on account or in respect of such Member under or in consequence of any such law together with interest at the rate of 8% per annum thereon from date of payment to date of repayment and may deduct or set off against any such distribution, including dividend, bonus or other money payable as aforesaid any moneys paid or payable by the Company as aforesaid together with interest as aforesaid; and
  - (iii) may recover as a debt due from such Member or his executor or administrator wherever constituted any moneys paid by the Company under or in consequence of any such law and interest thereon at the rate and for the period aforesaid in excess of any dividend, bonus or other money as aforesaid then due or payable by the Company to such Member.

CALLS ON SHARES

28. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members as the Directors may think fit in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares, and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed date. Except in the case of calls payable at fixed date pursuant to the conditions of allotment, each Member shall be entitled to receive at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment. Call on shares and payment of calls
29. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed and may be made payable in one lump sum or by instalments and at the time or times and place appointed by the Directors. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine. When call made
30. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to the payment of all calls, the instalments in respect thereof and any interest accrued thereon. Joint holders jointly and severally liable to payment
31. If before or on the day appointed for payment thereof a call or installment payable in respect of a share is not paid, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the amount of the call or installment at such rate not exceeding 8% per annum as the Directors shall fix from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment, but the Directors may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part. Interest on calls in arrears
32. 32.1 Any sum which by the terms of allotment of a share is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, shall, for all purposes of this Constitution, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment, and in case of non-payment the provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise, and all other relevant provisions of this Constitution, shall apply as if such sum were a call duly made and notified as hereby provided. Evidence in action for call
- 32.2 On the trial or hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Member sued is entered in the Register of Members or is recorded in the Record of Depositors as the holder of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minutes book, and that the notice of such call was duly given to the Member sued in pursuance of this Constitution; and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call, nor that the meeting at which any call made was duly convened and constituted nor any other matters whatsoever, and the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.
33. The Directors may, from time to time, make arrangements on the issue of shares varying the amounts and times of payment of calls or instalments to be paid as between the holders of such shares. Directors may differentiate between holders
34. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member all or any part of the Payment of monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the monies so advanced may (until the same would but for such advance become presently payable) pay interest at such rate, not exceeding 8% per annum, unless the Company in a meeting of Members otherwise directs. Any capital paid on shares in advance of calls shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits. Except in liquidation, sums paid in advance of calls shall not, until the same would but for such advance have become payable, be treated as paid up in the shares in respect of which they have been paid.

- 53.1 the Securities of the Company are listed on another stock exchange; and
- 53.2 the Company is exempted from compliance with Section 14 of the Central Depositories Act or Section 29 of the Securities Industry (Central Depositories) (Amendment) Act 1998, as the case may be, under the CD Rules in respect of such Securities,
- the Company shall, upon request of a Securities holder and subject to compliance with all applicable laws, permit a transmission of Securities held by such Securities holder from the register of holders maintained by the registrar of the Company in the jurisdiction of the other Stock Exchange, to the register of holders maintained by the Registrar in Malaysia and vice versa provided that there shall be no change in the ownership of such Securities.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

54. If any Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment of call on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment or any part thereof remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring him to pay such call or instalments, or such part thereof as remains unpaid, together with interest at such rate not exceeding 8% per annum from the date of forfeiture on the money for the time being unpaid, as the Directors shall determine, and any expenses that may have accrued by reason of such non-payment. Notice to pay calls
55. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of 7 days from the date of the notice) on or before which such call or instalment or such part as aforesaid, and all interest and expenses that have accrued by reason of such non-payment, are to be paid. It shall also name the place where payment is to be made, and shall state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made will be liable to be forfeited. Period of Notice
56. Upon failure to comply with the notice served under Clause 54 above, the shares in respect of which such notice has been given shall be forfeited by a resolution of the Forfeiture for non-payment

Directors to that effect unless the payment as required by such notice has been made before such resolution is passed. Such forfeiture shall include all distributions in respect of the shares not actually paid before the forfeiture, notwithstanding that they shall have been declared. The Directors may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder.

57. A share so forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the Company and may be re-sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was before such forfeiture or surrender the holder thereof or entitled thereto, or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit, and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposition the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit and whether with or without all or any part of the amount previously paid on the share being cancelled as paid. Forfeited shares becomes property of the Company
58. A Member whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the remaining forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all calls made and not paid on such shares at the time of forfeiture, and interest thereon to the date of payment, in the same manner in all respects as if the shares had not been forfeited, and to satisfy all (if any) the claims and demands which the Company might have enforced in respect of the share at the time of forfeiture, without any deduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture. Liability on forfeiture
59. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the Member whose share is forfeited and the Company, except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by this Constitution expressly saved, or as are by the Act given or imposed in the case of past Members. Results of forfeiture
60. Notwithstanding any such forfeiture as aforesaid, the Directors may at any time before the forfeited share has been otherwise disposed of, permit the share so forfeited to be redeemed upon the terms of payment of all calls and interest due upon and expenses incurred in respect of the share, and upon any further or other terms they may think fit. Redemption of forfeited shares
61. A statutory declaration in writing by a Director or the Secretary, and that a share has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the re-allotment or re-issue thereof shall constitute a good title to the share, and subject to the Central Depositories Act and the CD Rules, the person to whom the share is re-allotted or re-issued shall be registered as the holder thereof, and his title to the share shall not be affected by any act, omission, irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relative to the forfeiture, re-allotment or re-issue of the share. Subject to any lien for sums not presently payable, if any, any residue of the proceeds of re-allotment or re-issue of shares which are forfeited after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls or instalments payable and accrued interest and expenses, shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares immediately before the forfeiture thereof or to his executors, administrators, or assignees or as he directs. Statutory declaration as conclusive evidence and sale of shares forfeited
62. The provisions of this Constitution as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable to the Company at a fixed time, as if the sum had been payable by virtue of a call duly Application of forfeiture provisions made and notified.

| 65. | The Company may by Special Resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any number.  | Conversion of shares into stocks              |
| 66. | The stockholders may transfer the stocks or any part of the stocks in the same manner as the transfer of shares from which the stock arose may, before the conversion, have been transferred or in the closest manner as the circumstances allow. The Directors may fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and may restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum.  | Holder of stocks may transfer their interests |
| 67. | The stockholders shall, according to the amount of the stock held by the stockholders, have the same rights, privileges and advantages with regards distributions, including dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if the stockholders held the shares from which the stock arose but so that none of such privileges or advantages except participation in the distributions and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up shall be conferred by any such part of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred such privileges or advantages. | Participation in distributions and profits    |
| 68. | Any reference in the Act and this Constitution applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "Member" shall include "stock" and "stockholder" respectively.  | Application of this Constitution              |

PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

|-----|--|--------------------------------------|
| 69. | Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Listing Requirements, this Constitution, any rights previously conferred on any class of shares, and any rules or guidelines of any relevant authorities (other than such of the rules and guidelines which is waived by the relevant authorities), the Company may, with the sanction of an Ordinary Resolution of the Members in general meeting, purchase its own shares. | Company may purchase its own shares  |
| 70. | The Company shall not purchase its own shares unless: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>70.1 the Company is solvent at the date of the purchase and will not become insolvent by incurring the debts involved in the obligation to pay for the shares so purchased;</li> </ul>  | Conditions for purchasing own shares |

- 70.2 the purchase is made through the Stock Exchange on which the shares of the Company are quoted and in accordance with the relevant rules of the Stock Exchange; and
- 70.3 the purchase is made in good faith and in the interests of the Company.
71. Notwithstanding Clause 70.2, the Company may purchase its own shares otherwise than through a Stock Exchange if the purchase is: Purchase of own shares otherwise than through a Stock Exchange
- 71.1 permitted under the relevant and applicable rules of the Stock Exchange; and
- 71.2 made in accordance with such requirements as may be determined by the Stock Exchange.

ALTERATIONS OF CAPITAL

72. 72.1 The Company may by Special Resolution: Alteration of capital by Special Resolution
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital, such that the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived;
- (b) convert all or any of its paid-up shares into stock and reconvert that stock into fully-paid shares;
- (c) subdivide its shares or any of its shares, whatever is in the subdivision, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived.
- 72.2 The Company may by Special Resolution reduce its share capital in any manner authorised by the Act.
73. Anything done in pursuance of the last preceding Clause shall be done in the manner provided and subject to any conditions imposed by the Act so far as they shall be applicable, and so far as they are not applicable, in accordance with the terms of the resolution authorising the same, and so far as such resolution shall not be applicable, in such manner as the Directors deem most expedient. Alteration in accordance with conditions and terms

INCREASE OF CAPITAL

74. The Company in a general meeting may by Ordinary Resolution increase its share capital by the creation of new shares, such new capital to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts and (subject to any special rights for the time being attached to any existing class of shares) to carry such preferential, deferred or other special rights (if any), or to be subject to such conditions or restrictions (if any), in regard to distribution including dividends, return of capital, voting or otherwise, as the general meeting resolving upon such increase directs. Increase of share capital

75. 75.1 Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in general meeting, any new shares or other convertible Securities proposed to be issued shall, before they are issued be offered to such persons as are at the date of the offer entitled to receive notices from the Company of general meetings in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares or Securities to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by written notice specifying the number of shares or convertible Securities offered and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of that time or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares or convertible Securities offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares or convertible Securities in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise also dispose of any new shares or convertible Securities which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares or convertible Securities bear to shares or Securities held by the persons entitled to an offer of new shares or convertible Securities) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this Constitution.
- 75.2 Except so far as otherwise provided by or pursuant to the conditions of issue, any new share capital shall be considered as part of the current share capital of the Company, and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise as the current share capital.

Issue of new shares to existing Members

New capital to be considered as part of the current share capital of the Company.

MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS

76. Notwithstanding Clause 77 hereof, the repayment of preference share capital other than redeemable preference share capital, or any other alteration of preference shares and their Members' rights, shall only be made pursuant to a Special Resolution of the preference shareholders concerned, provided always that where the necessary majority for such a Special Resolution is not obtained at the meeting, consent in writing if obtained from the holders of 3/4 of the preference share capital concerned within 2 months of the meeting, shall be as valid and effectual as a Special Resolution carried at the meeting.
77. If the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of that class may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied by a written consent representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of the Members in that class, or by a Special Resolution passed by Members in that class sanctioning the variation.
78. For the purposes of Clause 77:
- 78.1 any amendment of a provision contained in this Constitution for the variation of the rights attached to a class of shares or the rights of a class of Members, or the insertion of any such provision into this Constitution, is itself to be treated as a variation of those rights; and
- 78.2 references to the variation of rights attached to a class of shares or the rights of a class of Members include an abrogation of those rights.

- (b) any Member holding at least 10% of the issued share capital of the Company.

- 86.2 The Directors shall call a meeting of Members once they receive a requisition to do so from Members representing at least 10% of the paid up capital of the Company carrying the right of voting at meetings of Members excluding any paid up capital held as treasury shares.

- 86.3 The requisition referred to in sub-Clause 86.2:
  - (a) shall be in hard copy or electronic form;
  - (b) shall state the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting;
  - (c) may include the text of a resolution that may properly be moved and is intended to be moved at the meeting; and
  - (d) shall be signed or authenticated by the person making the requisition.

- 86.4 For purposes of sub-Clause 86.2, the right of voting shall be determined as at 5.00 p.m. on the date the requisition is deposited with the Company.

- 86.5 The Directors shall:
  - (a) call for the meeting within 14 days from the date of the requisition under sub-Clause 86.2 and
  - (b) hold the meeting on a date which is not more than 28 days after the date of the notice to convene the meeting.

- 86.6 If the requests received by the Company identify a resolution intended to be moved at the meeting, the notice of the meeting shall include the text of the resolution.

- 86.7 If the resolution is to be proposed as a Special Resolution, the Directors shall be considered as not having duly called for the meeting if the notice of the resolution is not given in accordance with section 292 of the Act.

- 86.8 If the Directors are required to call a meeting of Members under sub-Clause 86.2 and do not do so in accordance with sub-Clause 86.5, the Members who requisitioned the meeting or any of the Members representing more than one half of the total voting rights of all of the Members who requisitioned, may call for a meeting of Members. The meeting shall be convened by the Members on a date not more than 3 months after the date on which the Directors received a requisition under sub-Clause 86.2 to call for a meeting of Members. Such meeting shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are requisitioned to be convened by Directors of the Company. Any reasonable expenses incurred by the Members requisitioning the meeting by reason of the failure of the Directors to call a meeting shall be reimbursed by the Company.

- 86.9 The Company may convene a meeting of Members at more than one venue using any technology or method that enables the Members to participate and to exercise the Members' right to speak and vote at the meeting. The main venue of the meeting shall be in Malaysia and the chairperson shall be present at the main venue.
87. 87.1 Subject to the Act, the notices convening a meeting shall be given to all Members at least 14 days before the meeting or at the least 21 days before the meeting where any Special Resolution is to be proposed or where it is an annual general meeting. The notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify the meeting as such together with the general nature of the business of the meeting, and the notice convening a meeting to pass a Special Resolution shall specify the intention to propose the resolution as a Special Resolution accompanied by an explanatory statement regarding the effect of any proposed resolution in respect of such business. At the same time as Members are notified, such notice shall be advertised in at least one nationally circulated Bahasa Malaysia or English daily newspaper and shall be sent to the Stock Exchange. Provided that in respect of Deposited Securities:
- Notice of Meetings
- (a) the Company shall request the Central Depository in accordance with the CD Rules, to prepare a Record of Depositors to whom notices of general meetings or adjourned general meetings shall be given by the Company. Subject to Clause 43, the Record of Depositors requested under this Clause 87.1(a) when made available to the Company shall be treated as the final record of all Depositors who shall be deemed to be the registered holders of shares of the Company entitled to receive notice of the general meeting or adjourned general meeting;
  - (b) the Company shall request the Central Depository in accordance with the CD Rules, to prepare a Record of Depositors as at the latest date which is reasonably practicable which shall in any event be not less than 3 Market Days (or such other period specified by the Act, the Central Depositories Act, the CD Rules and/or the Central Depository) before the general meeting or adjourned general meeting; and
  - (c) Subject to Clause 43 and the Securities Regulations (where applicable), a Depositor shall not be regarded as a Member entitled to attend any general meeting or adjourned general meeting and to speak and vote thereat by a person or proxy unless his name appears in the Record of Depositors requested for the purposes of such general meeting or adjourned general meeting.

- 87.2 An annual general meeting may be called by a notice shorter than the period specified in Clause 87.1 if agreed by all the Members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.
- 87.3 A meeting of Members (other than an annual general meeting) may be called by a notice shorter than the period specified in Clause 87.1 if so agreed by the majority of Members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting holding not less than 90% of the number of shares (in the case of private company) or 95% of the number of shares (in the case of public company) giving a right to attend and vote at the meeting, excluding any shares in the Company held as treasury shares.
- 87.4 Where special notice is required of a resolution under the Act, the resolution shall not be effective unless notice of the intention to move such resolution is given to the Company at least 28 days before the meeting at which it is to be moved. Where practicable, the Company shall give its Members notice of any such resolution in the same manner and at the same time as it gives notice of the meeting. Where it is not practicable to do so, the Company shall give notice of the resolution to the Members at least 14 days before the meeting by sending it to the Members in accordance with the provisions of Clause 190.
- 87.5 Notice of a meeting of Members must be given to every Member, Director, Auditor and the Stock Exchange in any manner authorised by Clause 190. For the purposes of this Clause, the reference to a 'Member' includes any person who is entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member who, but for his death or bankruptcy, would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting and the Company has been notified of the person's entitlement in writing. Save as otherwise provided in these Clauses or the Act, no other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.
- 87.6 Notice of a meeting of Members shall state:
- (a) the place, date and time of the meeting; and
  - (b) the general nature of the business of the meeting and in the case of special business, shall be accompanied by a statement recording the effect of any proposed resolution in respect of such special business.

The notice of meeting of Members may include the text of any proposed resolution and other information as the Directors deem fit.

- 87.7 Notice of a meeting of Members shall:
- (a) be in writing and shall be given to the Members either in hard copy form, or in electronic form, or partly in hard copy and partly in electronic form in accordance with the provisions of Clause 190.
  - (b) state prominently that:
    - (i) a Member shall be entitled to appoint more than one person as his proxy to exercise all or any of his rights to attend, participate, speak and vote at a meeting of Members subject to the following provisions save as provided for in Clause 87.7(b)(ii), the Act and any applicable law, each Member shall be permitted to appoint more than one proxy.

- (ii) for the avoidance of doubt, and subject always to Clause 87.7(b)(i), the Act and any applicable law:
  - (1) there is no limit to the number of proxies which an Exempt Authorised Nominee may appoint in respect of each omnibus account it holds;
  - (2) an Authorised Nominee may appoint at least one proxy in respect of each Securities Account it holds to which shares in the Company are credited; and
  - (3) a Member who is a substantial shareholder (within the meaning of the Act) per the General Meeting Record of Depositors may appoint up to (but not more than) 5 proxies.

There shall be no restriction as to the qualification of the proxy. A proxy appointed to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall have the same rights as the Member to attend, participate, speak and vote at the meeting and upon appointment a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

87.8 Where notice of a meeting of Members is given by the Company by publishing on a website, the Company must notify a Member of the publication of the notice on the website and such notification shall be in writing and be given in hard copy or electronic form stating:

- (a) that it concerns a meeting of Members;
- (b) the place, date and time of the meeting; and
- (c) whether the meeting is an annual general meeting.

The notice shall be made available on the website from the date that notice is given under this Clause until the conclusion of the meeting.

87.9 In the case of joint holders of a share, the notice, whether in hard copy or by electronic form, must be given to the joint holder whose name appears first in the Register of Members or Record of Depositors.

- 87.10 The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to or the non-receipt of the notice by any person so entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 88 All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at a meeting of Members, and all that is transacted at an annual general meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception of the declaration of dividends, the consideration of the accounts and balance sheets and the reports of the Directors and Auditors, and any other documents annexed to the balance sheets, the fixing of the Directors' fees and benefits, the election of Directors in place of those retiring and the appointment and fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors. Special business
89. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the commencement of the meeting, 2 Members present in person or proxy, or, in the case of corporations which are Members, present by their representatives appointed pursuant to these Clauses, and entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum for all purposes. For the purposes of constituting a quorum, one or more representatives appointed by a corporation shall be counted as one Member or one or more proxies appointed by a person shall be counted as one Member. Quorum
90. The Company shall request the Central Depository in accordance with the CD Rules, to issue the General Meeting Record of Depositors. Subject to the Securities Regulations (where applicable), a Depositor shall not be regarded as a Member entitled to attend any general meeting and to speak and vote thereat unless his name appears in the General Meeting Record of Depositors.
91. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Member or Members present shall for purposes of such adjourned meeting constitute a quorum. Proceeding of quorum not present
92. If it appears to the chairman that the venue specified in the notice convening the meeting is inadequate to accommodate all Members entitled and wishing to attend, the meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings shall be valid if the chairman is satisfied that adequate audiovisual facilities are in place to ensure that a Member who is unable to be physically accommodated at the specified venue is able to: Accommodation of Members at meeting
- (a) reasonably participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
  - (b) hear and/or see all persons present who communicate (whether by the use of microphones, loud-speakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise), whether at the specified venue or elsewhere; and

- (c) where such Member would be deemed to be present in person at the meeting, he shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum of the meeting accordingly.
93. The chairman (if any) of the Board or in his absence the deputy chairman of the Board shall preside as chairperson at every general meeting of the Company. If there is no such chairperson or deputy chairperson or if at any meeting the chairperson or the deputy chairperson is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chairperson, the meeting shall choose one Director to be chairperson, and if no Director is present or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, the meeting shall choose one Member present to be chairman. Chairman of general meeting
94. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place as the meeting shall determine. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, no Member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Chairman may adjourn meeting and notice of adjournment to be given
95. At all general meetings, resolutions put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by poll. Voting on resolution at a general meeting
96. The instrument appointing a proxy to vote at a meeting shall be deemed also to confer authority to demand, or join in demanding a poll, and, for the purposes of the last preceding Clause, a demand by a person as proxy for a Member shall be the same as a demand by the Member. Authority of proxy to demand for a poll
97. If any votes shall have been counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the result of the voting unless it is pointed out at the same meeting or at any adjournment thereof and unless in the opinion of the Chairman at the meeting or any adjournment thereof as the case may be, it shall be of sufficient importance to vitiate the result of the voting. Error in vote count
98. If a poll be demanded in manner aforesaid, it shall, subject to Clause 99, be taken at such time and place, and in such manner, as the chairman shall direct (including the use of ballot paper or voting papers or tickets), and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The Chairman may (and if so directed by the meeting shall) appoint scrutineers for the purposes of a poll, and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the results of the poll. Taking of poll
99. Subject to Clause 95, a poll demanded on any question shall be taken either at once or at such time and place as the Chairman directs not being more than 30 days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded. Time frame for taking poll
100. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting, or on any question of adjournment.
101. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business, other than the question for which a poll has been Continuation of meeting of demanded.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

102. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote. Casting vote of Chairman
103. 103.1 Subject to Clause 43 and any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, at meetings of Members or classes of Members, each Member shall be entitled to be present at any general meeting of the Company either personally or by proxy or by attorney and to be reckoned in a quorum in respect of shares fully paid and in respect of partly paid shares where calls are not due and unpaid. Voting by Members or proxies
- 103.2 Subject to Clause 43 and any special rights or restrictions as to voting attached to any class or classes of shares by or in accordance with these Clauses, (a) in the case of a show of hands or (b) in the case of a poll, every Member, or holder of preference shares present in person or by proxy or by attorney or other duly authorised representative shall have one vote for every share held by him upon which all calls due to the Company have been paid. Subject to Clause 43, the shares held or represented by a Member present in person or by proxy or by attorney or other duly authorised representative shall, in relation to shares of a Depositor, be the number of shares entered against his name in the Record of Depositors. A proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands on any question at any general meeting.
- 103.3 Where the capital of the Company consists of shares of different monetary denominations, voting rights shall be prescribed in such manner that a unit of capital in each class, when reduced to a common denominator, shall carry the same voting power when such right is exercisable.
- 103.4 On a poll taken at a meeting of Members, a Member entitled to more than one vote, need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses on a poll in the same way.
- (a) A Member entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company, or at a meeting of any class of Members, shall be entitled to appoint more than one person as his proxy to exercise all or any of the Member's rights to attend, participate, speak and vote instead of the Member at a general meeting of Members subject to the following provisions:
- (i) save as provided for in Clause 103.4(b)(ii), the Act and any applicable law, each Member shall be permitted to appoint more than one proxy;
- (ii) where a Member appoints more than one proxy, the appointment shall be invalid unless the Member specifies the proportion of the Member's shareholdings to be represented by each proxy.

- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, and subject always to Clause 103.4(a):
- (i) there is no limit to the number of proxies which an Exempt Authorised Nominee may appoint in respect of each omnibus account (as defined in Clause 103.7) it holds;
  - (ii) an Authorised Nominee may appoint at least one proxy in respect of each Securities Account it holds to which shares in the Company are credited; and
  - (iii) a Member who is a substantial shareholder (within the meaning of the Act) per the General Meeting Record of Depositors may appoint up to (but not more than) 5 proxies.
- 103.5 Termination of a person's authority to act as proxy is upon the Company or the appointed share registrar of the Company receiving a signed notice of termination from the member who has appointed such person as proxy at least 24 hours before the commencement of a meeting of Members or an adjourned meeting of Members.
- 103.6 On a resolution to be decided by poll, every Member who is present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall have one vote on any question at any general meeting for every share held by such Member.
- 103.7 Any corporation which is a Member may in accordance with Section 333 of the Act, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at a particular meeting or at all meetings of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member.
- 103.8 The authority given by a corporation to a representative may be for a particular general meeting or for all meetings of the Company. In the case of the latter, the person authorised shall be entitled to exercise his powers on behalf of the corporation until his authority is revoked by the corporation.
- 103.9 A certificate of authorisation by the corporation shall be prima facie evidence of the appointment or revocation of the appointment, as the case may be.
- 104.1 A Member who is of unsound mind or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental disorder may vote, on a poll, by his committee or by such other person as properly has the management of his estate and any such committee or other person may vote either personally or by proxy or attorney provided that such evidence as the Directors may require of the aggregate the proxy appointed by the Member is able to cast on a poll the aggregate number of shares which is entered:

- (i) against the name of that Member in the Register of Members and/or subject to Clause 43 the Record of Depositors made available to the Company; or
  - (ii) in the case of a Member who is a Depositor and an Authorised Nominee, against the Securities Account number and name of the Beneficial Owner for whom the Authorised Nominee is acting as shown in the Record of Depositors made available to the Company whether that number is greater or smaller than the number specified in any instrument of proxy executed by or on behalf of that Member; and
- (c) where a Member is an Authorised Nominee, to accept the appointment of at least one proxy in respect of each Securities Account it holds to which ordinary shares in the Company are credited. Each appointment of proxy by an Authorised Nominee may be made separately or in one instrument of proxy and shall specify the Securities Account number and the name of the Beneficial Owner for whom the Authorised Nominee is acting and where a Member is an Exempt Authorised Nominee which holds ordinary shares in the Company for multiple Beneficial Owners in one Securities Account ("omnibus account"), to accept without limitation the number of proxies which the Exempt Authorised Nominee may appoint in respect of each omnibus account it holds.

109. 109.1 Subject to the Act and the Listing Requirements, the Directors or any agent of the Company so authorised by the Directors, may accept the appointment of proxy received by Electronic Communication on such terms and subject to such conditions as they consider fit. The appointment of proxy by Electronic Communication shall be in accordance with this Clause and shall not be subject to the requirements of Clause 108.
- 109.2 For the purposes of Clause 109, the Directors may require such reasonable evidence they consider necessary to determine and verify:
- (a) the identity of the Member and the proxy; and
  - (b) where the proxy is appointed by a person acting on behalf of the Member, the authority of that person to make the appointment.
- 109.3 Without prejudice to Clause 109.1, the appointment of a proxy by Electronic Communication must be received at the Electronic Address specified by the Company in any of the following sources and shall be subject to any terms, conditions or limitations specified

Appointment of proxy via electronic communication

therein:

- (a) notice calling the meeting;
- (b) instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting; or
- (c) website maintained by or on behalf of the Company.

109.4 An appointment of proxy by Electronic Communication must be received at the Electronic Address specified by the Company pursuant to Clause 109.3 not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the form of appointment of proxy proposes to vote, or in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

109.5 An appointment of proxy by Electronic Communication which is not made in accordance with this Clause shall be invalid.

A Director retiring under this Clause, shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors or the number of Directors to retire by rotation at such meeting. additional directors
115. The Company at the meeting at which a Director retires may fill the vacated office by electing a person thereto. Unless at that meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacated office or a resolution for re-election of the Director retiring at that meeting is put to the meeting and lost or some other person is elected a Director in place of the retiring Director, the retiring Director shall, if offering himself for re-election and not being disqualified under the Act from holding office as a Director, be deemed to have been re-elected. A retiring Director shall be deemed to have offered himself for re-election unless he has given notice in writing to the Company that he is unwilling to be re-elected. When retiring Directors deemed re-elected
116. 116.1 A Director may appoint a person to act as his alternate provided that: Alternate Directors
- (a) such person is not a Director of the Company;
  - (b) such person does not act as an alternate for more than one Director of the Company;
  - (c) the appointment is approved by a majority of the other members of the Board; and
  - (d) any fee paid by the Company to the alternate shall be deducted from that Directors' fees and benefits.
- 116.2 An Alternate Director shall (except as regards power to appoint an Alternate Director and fees and benefits) be subject in all respects to the terms and conditions existing with reference to the other Directors, and shall be entitled to receive notices of all general meetings and meetings of the Directors and to attend speak and vote and be counted for the quorum at any such meeting at which his appointor is not present.
- 116.3 Any appointment so made may be revoked at any time by the appointor or by a majority of the Directors, and any appointment or removal of an Alternate Director shall be by notice in writing to the Company signed by the Director or Directors making or revoking the appointment delivered to the Secretary.
- 116.4 An Alternate Director shall cease to be an Alternate Director if his appointor ceases to be a Director; but if a Director who is required to retire by rotation under this Constitution so retires and is reappointed or deemed to have been reappointed, any appointment of an Alternate Director made by him which was in force immediately prior to his retirement shall continue after his reappointment as if he had not retired.
- 116.5 Every person acting as an Alternate Director shall be an officer of the Company and shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of or for the Director appointing him.

- (b) any arrangement for the giving by the Company of any security to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the deposit of a security; or
- (c) any contract by him to subscribe for or underwrite shares or debentures of the Company; or
- (d) any contract or arrangement with any other company in which he is interested only as a director or other officer or creditor of or as a member in or beneficially interested in the shares of said company.

127.2 A Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the office of auditor) in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and on such terms (as to remuneration and otherwise) as, subject to the Act, the Directors may determine. No Director or intending Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company, either with regard to his tenure of any such other office or place of profit or as a vendor, purchaser or otherwise nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established provided always that relevant provisions of the Act, the Listing Requirement and this Constitution are complied with.

Director may hold any other office or place of profit

127.3 Any Director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company, and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director, provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise a Director or his firm to act as Auditor.

Right to payment for professional services

127.4 A Director, notwithstanding his interest may be counted in the quorum present at any meeting whereat he or any other Director is appointed to hold any executive office or other office or place of profit under the Company or whereat the Directors resolve to exercise any of the rights of the Company (whether by the exercise of voting rights or otherwise) to appoint or concur in the appointment of a Director to hold any office or place of profit under any other company or whereat the terms of any such appointment are considered, and he may vote on any such matter other than in respect of his own appointment or the arrangement of the terms thereof.

127.5 The provisions in this Clause may at any time be suspended or relaxed to any extent and either generally or in respect of any particular contract, arrangement or transaction, and any particular contract, arrangement or transaction carried out in contravention of this Clause may be ratified by Ordinary Resolution of the Company, insofar as such suspension and relaxation is carried out in compliance with the Act, the Listing Requirements and any other applicable law currently in force.

128. Subject to the Act generally and Section 230 of the Act specifically, the Directors may procure the establishment and maintenance of or participate in or contribute to any non-contributory or contributory pension or superannuation fund or life assurance scheme for the benefit of, and pay, provide for or procure the grant, donations, gratuities, pensions, allowances, benefits or emoluments to any persons (including Directors and other officers) who are or shall have been at any time in the employment or service of the Company or of any company which is a subsidiary of the Company or of the predecessors in business of the Company or of any such subsidiary company, or the wives, widows, families or dependents of any such persons. The Directors may also procure the establishment and subsidy of or subscription and support to any institutions, associations, clubs, funds, trusts or individuals calculated to be for the benefit of any such persons as aforesaid (including grants of scholarships and bursaries) or otherwise to advance the interests and well-being of the Company or of any such other company as aforesaid or of its members and payment for or towards the insurance of any such persons as aforesaid, and subscriptions, donations or guarantees of money for charitable or benevolent objects or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object.

RETIREMENT AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

129. 129.1 An election of Directors shall take place each year. At each annual general meeting, 1/3 of the Directors for the time being, or, if their number is not 3 or a multiple of 3, then the number nearest to one-third, shall retire from office PROVIDED ALWAYS that all Directors including Managing Director and Executive Directors shall retire from office once at least in each 3 years as required by the Listing Requirements but shall be eligible for re-election. A retiring Director shall retain office until the close of the meeting at which he retires.

Election of Directors

129.2 The Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election, but as between Directors of equal seniority, the Directors to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined from among them by lot.

130. No person not being a retiring Director shall be eligible for election to the office of Director at any general meeting unless a Member intending to propose him has, at least 11 clear days prior to the date of the meeting, left at the Office a notice in writing duly signed by the nominee, giving his consent to the nomination and signifying his candidature for the office, or the intention of such Member to propose him for election; provided that in the case of a person recommended by the Directors for election, 9 clear days' notice only shall be necessary, and notice of each and every candidature for election to the Board shall be served on the registered holders of shares at least 7 days prior to the meeting at which the election is to take place.

| 131. | Except as otherwise authorised by Section 203 of the Act, the election or appointment of any person proposed as a Director shall be effected by a separate resolution.  | Separate resolutions for appointment of Directors |
| 132. | Without prejudice to the provisions of Section 206 of the Act, the Company may by Ordinary Resolution of which special notice is given remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, and may by Ordinary Resolution appoint another person in his place. The person so appointed shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a Director on the day on which the Director in whose place he was appointed was last elected or appointed a Director. In default of such appointment the vacancy so arising may be filled by the Directors as a casual vacancy. | Removal of Directors before expiration of office  |

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

| 133. | The provisions of the Third Schedule of the Act shall not apply to the Company except so far as the same are repeated or contained in this Constitution.  | Third Schedule excluded     |
| 134. | The Directors may from time to time elect and remove a chairman and deputy chairman of the Board and determine the period for which they are respectively to hold office, The chairman so elected, or in his absence the deputy chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the Directors but if no such chairman or deputy chairman be elected, or if at any meeting the chairman or deputy chairman be not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the same without any prior notification by the chairman to the Directors, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to act as chairman of such meeting. | Chairman                    |
| 135. | A Director, or if requested by a Director to do so, a Secretary, shall assist the Director to convene a meeting of the Board by giving notice in accordance with Clause 190.  | Convening of board meetings |
| 136. | A notice of a meeting of the Board shall be sent to every Director and the notice shall include the date, time and place of the meeting and the matters to be discussed. Such notices shall be given in accordance with Clause 190.   |                             |
| 137. | Any irregularity in the notice of a meeting is waived if all Directors entitled to receive notice of the meeting attend the meeting without objection to the irregularity.  |                             |

138. A meeting of the Board may be held either: Methods of holding meetings
- 138.1 by a number of Directors who constitute a quorum, being assembled together at the place, date and time appointed for the meeting; or
  - 138.2 by means of instantaneous communication device or mode by which all Directors participating and constituting a quorum can simultaneously communicate with each other throughout the meeting; or
  - 138.3 by a combination of both of the methods set out above.
139. Subject to any applicable laws, the contemporaneous linking together by instantaneous communication device or mode, whether or not any Director (or his alternate) is out of Malaysia, shall be deemed to constitute a meeting of the Directors and all provisions of this Constitution relating to such meetings of the Directors shall apply to such meeting so long as the following conditions are met:
- 139.1 notice of meeting in accordance with Clause 190 has been given to the Directors;
  - 139.2 each Director taking part in the meeting by instantaneous communication device or mode must be able to communicate with each of the other Directors taking part throughout the duration of the meeting;
  - 139.3 at the commencement of the meeting, each Director acknowledges his presence for the purpose of the meeting to all of the other Directors taking part; and
  - 139.4 all information or documents pertaining to or circulated during the meeting must be made equally available to all Directors prior to or during the meeting.
140. A Director who intends to leave the meeting shall inform the chairman of the meeting or the Secretary prior to disconnecting his communications device and a Director will be conclusively presumed to have been present and to have formed part of the quorum throughout the meeting unless he has informed the chairman of his departure.
141. 141.1 The Directors shall cause minutes to be duly entered in books Minutes provided for the purpose:
- (a) of all appointments of managers and secretaries.
  - (b) of the names of all the Directors present at each meeting of the Directors and of any committee of Directors and of the Company in general meeting.
  - (c) of all resolutions and proceedings of general meetings and of meetings of the Directors and committees of Directors.
  - (d) of all orders made by the Directors and any committee of Directors.

- 141.2 Such minutes shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting and if so signed, shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the facts thereon stated.
142. A meeting by the Directors conducted by instantaneous communication device is deemed to be held at the place where the largest group of Directors participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting is physically present.
143. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors shall be 2. Quorum
144. No business may be transacted at a meeting of the Board if a quorum is not present.
145. The remaining Directors or a sole remaining Director may continue to act notwithstanding any vacancies in the Board but, if and so long as the number of Directors is reduced below the minimum number fixed by or in accordance with Clause 113, the remaining Directors or Director may except in an emergency, act only for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to such minimum number, or to summon a general meeting of the Company.
146. If at any time during a meeting of the Directors the quorum falls below the minimum number stated in Clause 143 above and a Board decision was made prior to the lack of quorum, that decision would still be valid notwithstanding that the quorum is insufficient.
147. Subject to Clause 127 above, every Director shall be entitled to one vote. Voting
148. Subject to these Clauses, questions arising at any meeting of the Directors shall be decided and a resolution of the Board shall be passed, if approved by a majority of votes. In the case of equality of votes and subject to Clause 127 above, the chairman shall have a casting vote. However, where 2 Directors validly constitute a quorum, the chairman of a meeting at which only such a quorum is present, or at which only 2 Directors are competent to vote on the question at issue shall not have a casting vote, whereupon, in the case of equality of votes, the status quo shall be maintained in respect of such matter or thing contained in the resolution as it stood immediately before the resolution was placed before the Board. The other business not affected by such resolution shall continue as usual.
149. A Director present at the meeting of the Board is presumed to have agreed to, and to have voted in favour of, a resolution of the Board unless he expressly dissents from or votes against the resolution at the meeting.
150. Where a resolution is passed at an adjourned meeting of the Board, the resolution shall, for all purposes, be treated as having been passed on the date on which it was in fact passed and shall not be deemed to have been passed on any earlier date. Resolution passed at adjourned meeting
151. Notwithstanding Clause 148, a resolution in writing signed or assented to by any means of Electronic Communication by majority of the Directors who may be present in Malaysia and by majority of the Directors who may be absent from Malaysia who have supplied to the Secretary an address for the giving of notices to Resolution in writing them while they are so absent, and who are sufficient to form a quorum, but excluding any Director who is precluded or prohibited from voting on the resolution in question by reason of these Clauses or any applicable law, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly called and constituted; provided that where a Director is not present in Malaysia and has not supplied to the Secretary an address for the giving of notices to him but has an Alternate Director who is so present, then such resolution may be signed by such Alternate Director. All such signed resolutions shall be described as "Directors' Circular Resolutions" and shall be forwarded or otherwise delivered to the Secretary without delay, and shall be recorded in the Company's minute book. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more Directors or, where applicable, their alternates.

152. A resolution signed or assented to by a Director need not be signed or assented to by the Alternate Director, if any, appointed by him in that capacity and a resolution signed or assented to by an Alternate Director need not be signed or assented to by the Director who appointed him.
153. Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, the Board may regulate its own proceedings. Other proceedings
154. The Directors may establish any committees, local boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company, either in Malaysia or elsewhere, and may lay down, vary or annul such rules and regulations as they may think fit for the conduct of the business thereof, and may appoint any persons (whether or not a Director) to be members of any such committee or local board, or any managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration, and may delegate to any such committee, local board, manager or agent any of these powers, authorities and discretion vested in the Directors, with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise the members of any such committee or local board, or any of them, to fill any vacancies therein, and to act notwithstanding vacancies, and any such appointment or delegation may be made upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit, and the Directors may remove any person so appointed, and may annul or vary any such delegation, but no persons dealings in good faith without notice of any such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby. Power to establish committees etc.
155. The meetings and proceedings of any such committee consisting of 2 or more members (whether or not a Director) shall be governed by the provisions herein contained for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Directors so far as the same are applicable thereto and are not superseded by a regulation made by the Directors under the last preceding Clause. Meetings and proceedings of committees
156. A committee, local board or agency may elect a chairman of its meetings; if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting, the chairman is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding of the meeting, the members present may choose one of their members to be the chairman at the meeting. Chairman of committee

VALIDATION OF ACTS OF DIRECTORS

157. All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of the Directors or by any person acting as a Director, local board or agency shall notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director or person acting as aforesaid, or that they, or any of them were disqualified, or had vacated office or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Director or member of such committee, local board or agency as aforesaid and had been entitled to vote.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

158. 158.1 The Board may from time to time appoint any one or more of their body to be the holder of any executive office or position (including but not limited to the office of Chief Executive, managing director, joint managing director or assistant managing director) for such period and upon such terms as it thinks fit. Remuneration of executive officer
- 158.2 The appointment of any Director to an executive position under Clause 158.1 shall be subject to termination if he ceases from any cause to be a Director.
- 158.3 The Board may entrust to and confer upon such Directors appointed to an executive position under Clause 158.1, any of the powers exercisable by it upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as it thinks fit and may from time to time (subject to the terms of any agreement entered into in any particular case) revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers, provided always that the holder of any executive office or position (including but not limited to the office of Chief Executive, managing director, joint managing director or assistant managing director) shall be subject to the control of the Board.
159. The remuneration of the Directors appointed to an executive position under Clause 158.1 shall subject to the terms of any agreement entered into in any particular case, be by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or otherwise or by any or all of these modes but such remuneration shall not include a commission on or percentage of turnover but it may be a term of their appointment that they shall receive pension, gratuity or other benefits upon their retirement. The remuneration of the Directors appointed to an executive position shall be determined by the Board and can either be in addition to or in lieu of his/their fee as a Director.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTORS

160. The Directors may from time to time appoint any person or persons to be an associate Director or associate Directors and may from time to time cancel any such appointments. The Directors may fix, determine and vary the powers, duties and remuneration of any person or persons so appointed. Any person or persons so appointed shall not be required to hold any shares to qualify for appointment nor have any right to attend or vote at any meeting of Directors except by the invitation and with the consent of the Board.

SECRETARY

161. The Secretary shall, in accordance with the Act, be appointed by the Directors for such term, at such remuneration, and upon such conditions as the Directors think fit and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by them. The Directors may from time to time by resolution appoint a temporary substitute for the Secretary who shall be deemed to be the Secretary during the term of his appointment.

THE SEAL

162. The Seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the Board or a committee of the Board and every instrument to which The custody and the affixing of the Seal the Seal shall be affixed shall, except in the case of certificates of title of shares, stock, debenture stock, debentures or any other form of security other than letters of allotment, be signed by 2 Directors, or by one Director and the Secretary, or by some other person duly appointed by the Directors.

163. The Company may also have a share seal pursuant to Section 63 of the Act. All forms of certificate for shares, stock or debenture stock or representing any other form of security other than letters of allotment shall be issued under the share seal and bear the autographic signatures of one or more Directors and the Secretary; provided that the Board may by resolution determine that such signatures or either of them shall be dispensed with or be affixed by some method or system of mechanical signature.
164. The Company may exercise the powers conferred by Sections 62 and 63 of the Act and such powers shall be vested in the Directors.
165. The Company or the Directors on behalf of the Company may exercise the powers conferred by the provisions of the Act with regard to having official seals for use abroad and the powers conferred by the provisions of the Act with regard to the keeping of a branch Register of Members.

Power to have official seal for use abroad

DISTRIBUTIONS AND RESERVE FUND

166. 166.1 Subject to the Act, the Directors may declare dividend distribution to the Members out of profits of the Company provided that the Company is solvent.
- 166.2 The Directors may authorise a distribution at such time and in such amount as they consider appropriate, if they are satisfied that the Company will, in accordance with the Act, be solvent immediately after the distribution is made. The Company is regarded as solvent if the Company is able to pay its debts as and when the debts become due within 12 months immediately after the distribution is made.
- 166.3 If after a dividend distribution is authorised and before it is made, the Directors cease to be satisfied on reasonable grounds that the Company will be solvent immediately after the distribution is made, the Directors shall take all necessary steps to prevent the distribution from being made.
- 166.4 The Directors may fix the time that a dividend distribution is payable and the method of payment. A distribution can be paid in cash, by the issue of shares or other Securities, by the grant of options and by the transfer of assets to a Member.

Dividend distributions payable only if Company solvent

167. Subject to the rights of persons (if any) entitled to shares with special rights as to dividend, all dividend distributions shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid on the shares in respect of which the distribution is paid, but no amount paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this Clause as paid on the share. All distributions shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid on the shares during any part or parts of the period in respect of which the distribution is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for distribution as from a particular date, such share shall rank for distribution accordingly.

Payment of distributions

168.	168.1	The Directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any Member all sums of money (if any) immediately payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company held by him.	Power to retain dividends
	168.2	The Directors may retain any dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share other than fully paid shares on which the Company has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.
169.		Without prejudice to the powers of the Company to pay interest on share capital as hereinbefore provided, any dividend or other monies payable on or in respect of any share shall not bear interest against the Company.	Dividends shall not bear interest
170.	170.1	Subject to the provisions of this Act where any asset, business or property is bought by the Company as from a past date upon the terms that the Company shall as from that date take the profits and bear the losses thereof, such profits or losses as the case may be, shall, at the discretion of the Directors, be credited or debited wholly or in part to revenue account, and in that case the amount so credited or debited shall, for the purpose of ascertaining the fund available for dividend, be treated as a profit or loss arising from the business of the Company and available for dividend accordingly.	Asset, business or property bought by the Company
	170.2	Subject as aforesaid, if any shares or Securities are purchased cum dividend or interest such dividend or interest when paid may at the discretion of the Directors be treated as revenue and it shall not be obligatory to capitalise the same or any part thereof.
171.		The Directors may retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the provisions as to the transmission of shares hereinbefore contained entitled to become a Member, or which any person is under those provisions entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a Member in respect of such shares or shall transfer the same.	Power to retain dividends in respect of transmission of shares
172.		All dividends unclaimed for one year after having been declared may be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the Unclaimed Moneys Act, 1965. The payment by the Directors of any unclaimed dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof and any dividend unclaimed.	Unclaimed dividends
173.		Any dividend declared on Deposited Securities shall accrue to the Depositors whose names appear on the Record of Depositors issued to the Company or the Company's Registrar pursuant to the Clauses.	Transfer does not affect right to dividend declared before registration
174.		The receipt of a single person appearing in the Register of Members and/or the Record of Depositors to be the holder of any shares and where several persons appear in the Register of Members or to the extent permissible under the Central Depositories Act and the CD Rules, in the Record of Depositors to be the joint-holders of any shares the receipt of any one of such joint-holders shall be a sufficient discharge to the Company for any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of such shares.	Receipt of dividends
175.		Any dividend or other sum payable by the Company in respect of a share may be paid by fund transfer system or other similar means, or by cheque or warrant sent	Payment procedure

by post addressed to the holder at his registered address as it appears in the Register of Members or the Record of Depositors or, in the case of joint holders, addressed to the holder whose name stands first in the Register of Members or Record of Depositors in respect of the shares at his address as it appears in the Register of Members or Record of Depositors or addressed to such person and at such address as the holder or joint-holders may in writing direct. Every cheque or warrant shall, unless the holder or joint-holders otherwise direct, be made payable to the order of the holder or, in the case of joint-holders, to the order of the holder whose name stands first in the Register of Members or the Record of Depositors in respect of the shares, and shall be sent at his or their risk and payment of the cheque or warrant by bank on which it is drawn shall constitute a good discharge to the Company. In addition, any such dividend or other sum may (subject to any restrictions which may be imposed by applicable law) be paid by any bank or other funds transfer system or such other means and to or through such person as the holder or joint-holders may in writing direct, and the Company shall have no responsibility for any sums lost or delayed in the course of any such transfer or where it has acted on any such directions. Any one of 2 or more joint-holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends or other moneys payable or property distributable in respect of the shares held by them. Where a person is entitled by transmission to a share, any dividend or other sum payable by the Company in respect of the share may be paid as if he were a holder of the share and his address noted in the Register of Members or Record of Depositors were his registered address.

176. A dividend or bonus may be paid wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid-up shares or debenture or debenture stock of any other company, or in any one or more of such ways, and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payment shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustee upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Directors. No distribution, settlement, arrangement or adjustment so made by the Directors shall be questioned by any Member. Payment of dividend in specie
177. The Directors may, before recommending any distribution, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as a reserve fund or reserve funds, which shall at the discretion of the Directors be applicable for meeting contingencies, or for repairing or maintaining any works connected with the business of the Company, or for distribution by way of special distribution or bonus, or for such other purposes for which the profits of the Company may lawfully be applied as the Directors may think expedient in the interests of the Company, and pending such application the Directors may employ the sums from time to time so set apart as aforesaid in the business of the Company or invest the same in such Securities, other than the shares of the Company, as they may select. The Directors may also from time to time carry forward such sums as they may deem expedient in the interests of the Company. Reserve fund of the Company
178. The Directors may establish a reserve to be called either “capital reserve” or “realisation account” and shall either carry to the credit of such reserve from time to time all moneys realised on the sale of any investments held by the Company in excess of the then book price of the same or apply the same in providing for depreciation or contingencies. Such capital reserve or realisation account and all other moneys in the nature of accretion to capital, whether on sale of investments held, or otherwise, shall be treated for all purposes as capital moneys and not as Capital reserve or realisation account profits available for distribution. Any losses realised on the sale of any investments may be carried to the debit of capital reserve or realisation account except in so far as the Directors shall decide to make good the same out of other funds of the Company.

179. The Directors shall be at liberty to invest any sums carried to any reserve account or accounts upon such investments as they think fit, other than shares of the Company, and from time to time deal with and vary such investments and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company (save as hereinbefore provided) and to divide the ordinary reserve account or accounts into such special accounts as they think fit with full power to employ the assets constituting the ordinary reserve account or accounts in the business of the Company.
180. Every distribution warrant may, unless otherwise directed, be sent by post to the last registered address of the Member entitled thereto, and the receipt of the person whose name at the date of the declaration of the distribution appears on the Register of Members or Record of Depositors as the owner of any share, or, in the case of joint holders, or any one of such joint holders, shall be a good discharge to the Company for all payments made in respect of such share. No unpaid distribution or interest shall bear interest as against the Company.

CAPITALISATION OF RESERVES, ETC

181. The Company in general meeting may upon the recommendation of the Directors resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution provided that such sum be not required for paying the dividends on any shares carrying a fixed cumulative preferential dividend and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such Members respectively or paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid, or partly in the one way and partly in the other.
182. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed the Directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the Directors to make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as they think fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions, and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the Members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company, providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or (as the case may require) for the payment up by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members.
